

Dr Brian Montgomery

Dr Brian Montgomery is an independent healthcare consultant. He was formerly a general practitioner in West Lothian (1986-2000) before taking up a series of clinical management roles (Medical Director West Lothian Healthcare Trust 1999-2005, Associate Medical Director NHS Lothian 2005-2009, Board Medical Director NHS Fife 2009-2014, Interim Chief Executive NHS Fife 2013-2015). In 2011/12 he chaired the review of non-surgical oncology services in South East Scotland and between 2009 and 2014 he chaired the SE Scotland Regional Cardiac Planning Group and was a member of the SCAN Regional Cancer Advisory Group. Since 2015 he has had a number of roles including director of the Shared Services Programme delivering business cases for single system models for Radiology, Laboratories and Aseptic Pharmacy for NHS Scotland. In 2016 he published the Review of Access to New Medicines commissioned by the Cabinet Secretary for Health and Sport.